GENERAL CONDITIONS

Paiement

The reservation is definite after we have received 50% of the rental cost in our bank account (please find details below). The balance is due upon your arrival in cash.

If your booking is within 4 weeks before arrival we would like you to pay the total amount by revert, only after receipt of the money your booking will be definite.

If the payment has not been executed according to the above, Domaine la Fontaine will have the right to cancel the reservation.

Cancellation by the client

In case of cancellation we would urge you to inform us accordingly either by mail or e-mail.

In case the cancellation is done up to 4 weeks prior to arrival we charge 50% of the rent.

If the cancellation reaches us later than such date, you will have to pay the full amount of the rent.

We will do our utmost to rent the accommodation to someone else and if we succeed we will reimburse your cost, however no more than 50%.

Cancellation by the owner

In case the owner has to cancel the reservation prior to arrival for reasons beyond his control, he will inform the client without delay by telephone call or e-mail message.

In such an incident downpayments will be reimbursed immediately.

This obligation is not applicable if the reason for cancellation is caused by the client.

Liability

Domaine la Fontaine can not be held liable for loss, theft, accident, damage or injury in any way, shape or form caused to or by its guests during their stay, no matter if incidents take place inside or outside the premises.

Pets are not allowed.

We strongly recommend to take a cancellation insurance
